1. WORDS AND EXPRESSIONS TO HAVE MEANING IN ACT

A word or expression that is not defined in these model rules, but is defined in the Associations Incorporation Act 1981 has, if the context permits, the meaning given by the Act.

2. NAME

The name of the incorporated association is National Association of Field Experience Administrators Inc.

3. OBJECTS

The objects of the association are:

- i. To facilitate an annual conference for work integrated learning (WIL) / field experience administrators;
- ii. To provide a network and support reference point;
- iii. To raise awareness of the role of WIL / field experience administrators;
- iv. To lobby government and employer groups, in partnership with other collegiate societies, organisations and companies, in relation to relevant issues and policies on field placements;
- v. To provide opportunities and funding, such as scholarships, grants and awards, to support WIL / field experience administrators, students and industry partners; and,
- vi. To facilitate a national forum by sharing ideas, concerns, strategies, innovations, experience and expertise.

4. POWERS

- i. The association has the powers of an individual.
- ii. The association may, for example:
 - a) Enter into contracts; and,
 - b) Acquire, hold, deal with and dispose of property; and,
 - c) Make charges for services and facilities it supplies; and,
 - d) Do other things necessary or convenient to be done in carrying out its affairs.
- iii. The association may also issue secured and unsecured notes, debentures and debenture stock for the association.

5. CLASSES OF MEMBERS

- i. The membership of the association shall consist of ordinary members, and any of the following classes of members:
 - a) Associate members;
 - b) Life members;
 - c) Honorary members.
- ii. The number of ordinary members is unlimited.

- iii. The Management Committee may by resolution provide for sub-categories of memberships and for differing subscriptions and privileges applying to such sub-categories (as the case may be). The By-Laws of the Association will provide further detail with respect to such sub-categories and the benefits and entitlements each Member will be entitled to as part of that sub-category.
- iv. Notwithstanding any other rule as set out herein, it is acknowledged that each Member will be entitled to one (1) vote at general meetings of the Association regardless of that Members membership status (including sub-category).

6. MEMBERSHIP

- i. An application for membership must be:
 - a) In writing; and,
 - b) Signed by the applicant; and,
 - c) In the form decided by the management committee.

7. MEMBERSHIP FEES

- i. The membership fee for each class of membership
 - a) Is the amount decided by the members from time to time at a general meeting; and,
 - b) Is payable when, and in the way, the management committee decides.

8. ADMISSION AND REJECTION OF MEMBERS

- i. Upon receipt of an application and application fee, the secretary of the association must, as soon as practicable after the management committee decides to accept or reject an application, give the applicant a written notice of the decision.

9. WHEN MEMBERSHIP ENDS

- i. A member may resign from the association by giving a written notice of resignation to the secretary.
- ii. The resignation takes effect on
 - a) The day and at the time the notice is received by the secretary; or,
 - b) If a later day is stated in the notice – the later day.
- iii. The management committee may terminate a member's membership if the member
 - a) Is convicted of an indictable offence; or,
 - b) Does not comply with any of the provisions of these rules; or,
 - c) Has membership fees in arrears for at least 2 months; or,
 - d) Conducts himself or herself in a way considered to be injurious or prejudicial to the character or interests of the association.

- e) Before the management committee terminates a member's membership, the committee must give the member a full and fair opportunity to show why the membership should not be terminated.
- f) If, after considering all representations made by the member, the management committee decides to terminate the membership, the secretary of the committee must give the member a written notice of the decision.

10. APPEALS AGAINST REJECTION OR TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

- i. A person whose application for membership has been rejected, or whose membership has been terminated, may give the secretary written notice of the person's intention to appeal against the decision.
- ii. A notice of intention to appeal must be given to the secretary within 1 month after the person received written notice of the decision.
- iii. If the secretary received a notice of intention to appeal, the secretary must, within 3 months after the day of receipt, call a general meeting to decide the appeal.
- iv. At the meeting the applicant must be given a full and fair opportunity to show why the application should not be rejected or the membership should not be terminated.
- v. Also, the management committee and the committee members who rejected the application or terminated the membership must be given an opportunity to show why the application should be rejected or the membership should be terminated.
- vi. An appeal must be decided by a vote of the members present at the meeting.
- vii. If a person whose application has been rejected does not appeal against the decision within 1 month after receiving the written notice of the decision, or the person appeals but the appeal is unsuccessful, the secretary must, as soon as practicable, refund the application fee paid by the person.

11. REGISTER OF MEMBERS

- i. The management committee must keep a register of members.
- ii. The register of members must include the following particulars for each member:
 - a) The full name and residential address of the member;
 - b) The date of admission as a member;
 - c) The date of death or resignation of the member;
 - d) Details about the termination or reinstatement of membership;
 - e) Any other particulars the management committee or the members at a general meeting decide.
- iii. The register must be open for inspection at all reasonable times.
- iv. However, before the member may inspect the register, the member must apply to the secretary to inspect it.

12. SECRETARY

- i. If a vacancy happens in the office of secretary, the members of the management committee must ensure a secretary is appointed or elected for the association within 1 month after the vacancy happens.
- ii. The secretary must be an individual residing in Queensland, or in another state but not more than 65 km from the Queensland border, who is
 - a) A member of the association elected by the association as secretary; or,
 - b) Any of the following persons appointed by the management committee;
 1. A member of the association's management committee;
 2. A member of the association;
 3. Another person.
- iii. The management committee may appoint and remove the association's secretary at any time.

13. MEMBERSHIP OF MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

- i. The management committee of the association consists of a president, vice-president, treasurer, web administrator and any other members of the association members elect or appoint at a general meeting;
- ii. A member of the management committee, other than the secretary, must be a member of the Association;
- iii. After a two year term, at a general meeting of the association, the members of the management committee must retire from office, but are eligible, on nomination, for re-election.

14. ELECTING THE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

- i. A member of the management committee may only be elected as follows
 - a) Any 2 members of the association may nominate another member ("the candidate") to serve as a member of the management committee;
 - b) The nomination must be
 1. In writing; and,
 2. Signed by the candidate and the members who nominated him or her; and,
 3. Given to the secretary at least 14 days before the annual general meeting at which the election is to be held;
 - c) Each member present at the annual general meeting may vote for any number of candidates not more than the number of vacancies;
 - d) If, at the start of the meeting, there are not enough candidates nominated, nominations may be taken from the floor of the meeting.
- ii. A list of the candidates' names in alphabetical order, with the names of the members who nominated each candidate, must be posted in a conspicuous place in the office or usual place of meeting of the association for at least 7 days immediately preceding the annual general meeting.

- iii. If required by the management committee, balloting lists must be prepared containing the names of the candidates in alphabetical order.

15. RESIGNATION OR REMOVAL FROM OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE MEMBER

- i. A management committee member may resign from the committee by giving written notice of resignation to the secretary.
- ii. The resignation takes effect on
 - a) The day and at the time the notice is received by the secretary; or,
 - b) If a later day is stated in the notice – the later day.
- iii. A member may be removed from office at a general meeting of the association if a majority of the members present at the meeting vote in favour of removing the member.
- iv. Before a vote of members is taken about removing the member from office the member must be given a full and fair opportunity to show cause why he or she should not be removed from office.
- v. A member has no right of appeal against the member's removal from office under this section.

16. VACANCIES ON MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

- i. If a casual vacancy happens on the management committee, the continuing members of the committee may appoint another member of the association to fill the vacancy until the next annual general meeting.
- ii. The continuing members of the management committee may act despite a casual vacancy on the management committee.
- iii. However, if the number of committee members is less than the number of fixed under these rules as a quorum of the management committee, the continuing members may act only to
